Roberto Santiago

Writer by day, superhero by night. When he turned eleven, Roberto Santiago donned a mask and cape, and went out to save humanity. Since then, he has saved two kittens, one fern and an abandoned dog. He's still working on humanity. Now he has put on his mask and cape again to write Los Once. And Las Princesas Rebeldes, a flight on which he is accompanied by a powerful superheroine with X-ray eyes: Ángela Armero.

LOS SUPERHÉROES is a unique publishing project by Roberto Santiago, the author of LOS FUTBOLÍSIMOS (more than 4 million copies sold) and LOS FORASTEROS DEL TIEMPO (more than 600,000 copies sold)

These superheroes will turn kids into super-readers with a fantastic combination of adventures, superpowers, entertainment, topical issues and humour.

This long-term project consists of several independent collections, and will be launched with the first two titles: Los Once (The Eleven) and Las Princesas Rebeldes (The Rebel Princesses).

Over the months to come, the multiverse will expand with the release of more titles in these series and the arrival of additional collections in bookshops: Los Gamers Piratas (The Pirate Gamers), El Escuadrón K (K Squad)... and other surprises!

Alma is the heir to her father's throne. She hates protocol and official ceremonies. However, when she turns eleven she will have to face great challenges: like giving her first speech in public, representing the royal family at major events and... learning how to fly and how to move objects with her mind! To her amazement, Alma will discover that she possesses incredible superpowers. Together with other royal heirs, she will form a group that will soon make her a legend: The Rebel Princesses.

"Superheroes don't just take us on a journey to a fairer world; they help us become better people. And that is always the main goal of literature: to open our eyes and help us to understand, grow and think".
